Democrats Were Happy at Rally--- Distinguished Men Were Present

By 8:30 a. m. Monday the Democrats began to roll in from the woods, plains and valleys. The morning trains brought them from every neighboring town. They were given that glad Democratic hand-shake which so notably characterizes those who believe like Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan.

The forenoon was devoted to greetings and lovemaking. At 12 o'clock an abundant barbecue was spread at the rear of the tabernacle, and it was good to see the good old boys, those who are for Democracy and honest government, partake of the roast cow and tell of how few Republicans in their neighborhood or how long they have been a Democrat, or even how completely they would wipe up the earth with the Republicans in the coming battles of ballots.

A 2 o'clock the Ada band announced the opening proper, of the first great Democratic rally of this district by playing "Dixie." A thousand cheers greeted the sacred southern air.

Mayor Wood was master of ceremonies. He said at the out set that "this tabernacle had been the scene of one of the greatest religious revivals the town has ever seen. And that now it was about to be the scene of the beginning of one of the greatest political revivals the country has ever seen."

On account of having to leave early, Col. Roy Hoffman addressed the assemblage first. His remarks were well chosen and he opened the eyes of many to the importance of gathering in the harness to the end of landing the state for Democracy.

Judge Furman followed with an address of welcome. He and his utterances were greeted with prolonged applause and made the Democrats present think: "Why on wonder I am what I am," and those who were not of this faith think: "Why in the thunder am I not a Democrat, anyway."

C. J. Moore, of Roff, responded to the address of welcome in an able and fiery speech. Following were able and appropriate remarks from Tom McKeown, of Ada; Judge Ratliff, of Stonewall; Jap Copeland, of Center, and Ed. Latimer, of Hickory. This completed the afternoon program.

The announcement that Hon. W. A. Durant and Hon. T. P. Gore would speak in the evening drew a large audience. The tabernacle, which has a seating capacity of 2500, was not only packed, but hundreds were on the outside. Mr. Durant's speech was a winner. He spoke as one with authority. He is not only one of the leading and brainiest Indians in the Territory, but he ranks with many of our strongest statesmen in the new state. He is a student of Indian affairs and spoke with authority of the injustice the people have suffered at the hands of Republican misrule and thievery. He held the Republican party up as one of broken promises and misrepresentations.

He skinned Hitchcock and Geo. Wright going and coming, the hair flew. We would that every Indian, yea every white man in the new state could have heard this speech.

T. P. Gore followed. He proved to his hearers that he is a student of political economy and economics. That he is a champion of the people in affairs of government. He reviewed those principles that he thought should be inserted in the new state constitution. He renewed the hit that he always makes with the people here.

Hon. Charles Carter, of Ardmore, followed Mr. Gore with a few timely remarks.

Ada should feel honored because of her many distinguished guests. Dr. Fite, candidate for governor, was here from Muskogee. Hon. C. E. McFerren, of Caddo, and Hon. D. H. Linebaugh, of Atoka, both candidates for congress, were here also, and lent dignity to the occasion with their presence.

HOW THEY DO BUSINESS AT DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS

The headquarters of the Democratic Campaign committee for the new state are located on the most prominent corner of the City of Oklahoma City, and consist of parlors A, B and C, with a chairman's room, on the second floor of the magnificent Hotel Lee. They are opened, and the business of organization began about the 24th of July. At this time there is a force of ten men busily engaged in building up the organization over the entire state. The rooms are tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and present a very beautiful appearance. The work has been thoroughly systematized into departments, consisting of specific duties for the chairman, secretary, speakers' bureau and press bureau.

Hon. Jesse J. Dunn, of Alva, is chairman of the campaign committee and has general supervision of the entire campaign. Of his superior qualifications for this responsible position one may judge from the personal sketch of Mr. Dunn to be found in another column of the News.

The organization which has been outlined is thorough and complete in every detail, and there is no doubt but that it will result in mustering every Democrat to the polls in November.

On the secretary, Hon. Charles D. Carter, ably assisted by Hon. Joseph E. Johnston, of Alva, devolves the duty of seeing to it that this organization is completed in line with the plan adopted. A sketch of Mr. Carter is also published in another column. Mr. Johnston is peculiarly adapted for the work of his station, and is indefatigable in looking after the details of his office. Between these two gentlemen there can be no doubt that the work will be well and ably handled.

The speakers' bureau is presided over by Hon. W. D. Cardwell, of Ada, I. T. Mr. Cardwell is constantly at headquarters and devoting his entire time and attention to the work. His complete knowledge of the new state and his thorough acquaintanceship with the public men render him peculiarly adapted for the duties of his position. To him has been assigned the very important work of selecting, routing, advertising and billing all public speakers, arranging for all public meetings and seeing that they are successful.

The duties of the press bureau have been placed in the hands of Hon. Paul Nesbitt, of Oklahoma City. Mr. Nesbitt is well and favorably known among the press boys, and has taken up the duties of his position with vigor and ability. He will give the matter his entire time, and the papers of the state may be assured of able assistance throughout the campaign. On him devolves the duty of preparing and disseminating all political news and editorial matter from headquarters. In addition to this, his department will distribute all literature to the clubs and voters in the new state.

Supplementing these earnest workers for the cause of Democracy is a corps of stenographers, clerks and assistants, whose work is in charge of Mr. H. C. Davidson, of Oklahoma City, an urbane and talented young gentleman that all visitors at headquarters are pleased to meet.

If there is anything in organization, and it is universally conceded that there is, there is no doubt about the ultimate outcome of the present conflict. The constitutional convention will be Democratic, and the constitution will be a broad, Democratic document, so framed that unto every resident of the new state will be yielded equal and exact justice and special privileges will be conferred upon none and equal rights granted to all.

OLIVER'S GREAT REVIVAL COMES TO A CLOSE

The Oliver meeting is history. It has swept by blowing good to hundreds and salvation to scores.

The revival did not have the good will of scores in this town. We shall not enumerate the objections registered on the street corners during its progress. It would require columns of space. We never saw a revival prosper in the face of so much opposition in all our experience, as has this one. However, in spite of hurtful opposition that was in evidence from the beginning, there have been two hundred professions and many a church member has discovered the difference between churchness and christianity.

Sunday, the last day of the meeting, was the greatest of the thirty. Great crowds attended the three services and listened to eloquent and masterful discourses on the following subjects: At noon, "The Holy Spirit," at 3:00 p. m., "Temperance," evening, "The Unpardonable Sin." We are unable to review any of these sermons, but we can not refrain from asserting that his last effort, "The Unpardonable Sin," was the fitting climax to a meeting of goodly sermons. It was the best. We were impressed with his earnestness, his sincerity. His great voice trembled, his eyes were wet as he told his hearers in his last words that he held malice nor enmity against no man for criticism, abuse or utterances of condemnation against himself and his methods. "I don't care for this," he said, "but my heart does pain me, and my life is burdened because you would not accept my loving, saving, bleeding Christ." The man's great soul literally wept for those who had rejected the spirit of God.

Personally, the writer believes that Mr. Oliver is a fearless, consecrated ambassador of God. That he is the deepest man, intellectually, and the loftiest man, spiritually, that ever set foot in an Ada pulpit. He fought the battle through against odds. Some of the most influential citizens of the town stood out against him, but he was fearless to the end.

Prof. Martin and his chorus choir made life friends with lovers of song. The sirens would have hushed their mythical songs and joined in the melody had they passed when those two hundred voices were lifted in spiritual song.

Besides those who labored as personal workers and choir members, Miss Mable Warren, Mesdames S. J. Martin, L. J. Crowder and S. M. Torbett deserve special commendation for their faithful and never-tiring energies at the pianos.

Bro. Rippey made appeals at the three services Sunday for subscriptions for the Oliver party. Together with the amounts subscribed outside something like $600 was raised for Bro. Oliver and his co-workers.

That Mr. Oliver may for many years to come be a giant for God and high morals, is the writer's earnest desire.

WAREHOUSE FUND.

W. W. Norton Pleased With Action of Business Men.

W. W. Norton of the warehouse committee has raised over $400.

"The merchants of the city gave liberally," said Mr. Norton. "They not only gave the ground, but responded magnificently when called upon for funds, it amounting to $220, and a keg of nails."

Mr. Norton says the house will cost $1,600 and it will be erected at an early date. He is working diligently and hopes to have $800, by another few days.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN MEET AND DO BUSINESS

At the hour of 11 o'clock Monday morning about 200 citizens of Ada and the surrounding country met at the tabernacle in a good roads meeting. After some general discussion of the better plan to hasten some much needed road improvement around Ada, a motion was made that the citizens of the different communities situated in the trade district of Ada meet and organize road clubs, and that an overseer from each community be selected to co-operate with the commercial club, to the end that the present deplorable condition of the roads might be improved at the earliest possible moment.

There was considerable discussion, prominent country citizens and members of the commercial club participating. When it was concluded there appeared to be a better understanding and more appreciation of each other. The business men were impressed with the great earnestness of the farmer and his desire to do his part in every respect. The farmers found out sure enough that the commercial club each year for the past several years had expended considerable money and had done its very conscientious best. The great trouble has been and is, there has been so much to do. A motion finally prevailed unanimously, when the former had been withdrawn, that the citizens resident of the respective communities in the country who were present, get together in caucus under the tabernacle and discuss their respective propositions and select road overseers, who would at the earliest possible moment confer with the commercial club. The business men of Ada pledged the farmers early, industrious action in the matter of raising funds and appointing intelligent, active committees to co-operate with the farmers.

The following named men were elected road overseers in their respective neighborhoods:

Bob Eaton, from Ada to Fitzhugh. Overseer will let it be known when work begins.

Chas. Floyd, from Ada to Little Sandy beyond Hird. To begin work Monday morning.

T. N. Herrin, from Ahloso to Rock Crossing.

J. L. Buck from Rock Crossing to crossroads just south of brick yard.

J. D. Pryor, beginning at corner of Barringer's pasture, 3 miles southeast of Ada to section line 'phone is on.

J. O. Wanson and others of the Holaway schoolhouse will meet and elect overseer. Mr. Wanson will notify the people.

Clement Palmer and E. C. Sullivan were appointed temporary overseers in their respective neighborhoods and are authorized to call their respective communities together for the purpose of better organization.

J. A. Marlin, from east end of lane at Trants to government schoolhouse.

A. N. Davis, from Blackburn's gin to one mile west.

J. H. Lovelady, from Buck creek to Blackburn's gin. Begin work Thursday morning.

R. S. Hix, from section house to Ahloso.

J. M. Walker, from J. B. Chapman's east 2 miles.

Earl Stanger, calls meeting at Pick-et's schoolhouse for Wednesday night to discuss road matters.

A GOOD DOCTOR

is a broad minded man, and one who has the interest of his patient at heart and does all in his power to care for his patient. The best doctors' skill and ability is of little consequence if his prescriptions are filled by incompetent druggists and with impure drugs. Our prescription department is the largest and most complete of any in the city and is composed of the purest drugs and chemicals and compounded by experienced druggists. Consequently the best results are obtained. We can fill any prescription written by any physician in the city. You do not need to take them elsewhere because they are written on other druggists' stationery.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

REPUBLICAN TRICKERY.

Throughout the sections of the new state conceded to be Democratic the Republican politicians are whispering to the masses: "For delegate to the constitutional convention vote for the man, vote for him, regardless of party affiliation, who will do what you want done. Do not go into the Democratic primaries; thereby you obligate yourself to support the nominee." These smooth henchmen of Republicanism make an especial prey of the smaller towns ambitious for a county seat, encouraging them to ignore party lines entirely and support the man who will plug particularly for the town's interests. Also these smooth ones make for the members of the Farmers' Union and pick similar rot into their ears, urging them to stay out of Democratic primaries and vote for "the man."

Now, do you Democrats suppose they are making the same argument up in Republican communities of the new state? Do you think for a moment, for example, that the Republicans are urging the negroes of Guthrie and Muskogee to ignore party lines and vote for "the man"? Hardly. That's simply their game where they know they are in the minority. You may depend upon it, every negro and every other kind of a Republican will be whipped into the party line whether their nominee is a "man," a thing or a beast.

The News assumes every genuine Democrat believes the best way to find a good man for any public office is to select one thoroughly imbued with the principles of the Democratic party, if he does not so believe his Democracy is extremely doubtful. So, we warn the people against the smooth, serpentine tongue of these unscrupulous tempters. That's the way they have stayed in power for the past ten years. But they cannot befuddle honest people any longer. The latter are learning whom to trust.

We are going to have a Democratic constitutional convention, which will frame a mighty document granting special privileges to none other than the whole people. If you want to help yourself and your neighbor you'd better scramble into the band wagon. Else you'll get run over.

A "DOLLAR PUT IT BACK FUND."

Mr. Roosevelt has forwarded one dollar for the Republican campaign fund. Republican newspapers are pointing to this as an excellent example. It is an excellent example when the president seeks to encourage his party to depend upon campaign funds provided by the people rather than by the corporations.

But the president may set another good example. Let him call upon Postmaster General Cortelyou, who is also chairman of the Republican National committee, to state just how many hundred thousand dollars of money embezzled from the insurance policy holders found their way into the coffers of the Republican party.

Then when the sum has been determined upon, let Mr. Roosevelt suggest that the Republican party "put it back" and call upon the rank and file of the party to contribute dollar donations to that end.

It might be called "The Dollar Put It Back Fund."

Republican leaders certainly do not expect the people to forget these stolen funds.—Commoner.

BESIDES the material, there are other advantages of an artificial lake for Ada. Think of it as a public park, a pleasure resort, a place for the children to romp and play, their laughter mingling with the chatter of the squirrels and the chorus of the birds, a paradisaic picnic ground for the whole country around, all that the lake would be.

KEEP on talking the dam enterprise; keep the waters troubled.

THE RALLY A SUCCESS.

THE big Democratic rally Monday, from every standpoint, was a brilliant success. Hundreds upon hundreds of people attended from all parts of the country. Out of the occasion they got both pleasure and enlightenment. They were addressed by some of the leading speakers and thinkers of the new state; they learned a great deal about the conditions and issues facing us; learned that there is work for every man to do if we would have a great state builded, and learned something of what that work consisted of.

THE fulminations of Oliver are still reverberating in the community.

THE tabernacle Monday was vibrant with the gospel of Jefferson.

TUESDAY is caloric day in Dallas. There today Texas Democracy in convention is choosing the next Governor.

GOODROADS—of course we're going to have passable highways for our farmers to use in getting to town with their cotton.

"ADA is the Mecca of Democracy. He is mightily strengthened in the faith who makes a pilgrimage thither and worships at the shrine." So says T. P. Gore.

By all means let the county seat contests be held in obedience, keep them out of the big struggle for control of the constitutional convention. The county seats will be selected later by vote of the people. The Democratic party will organize that convention and frame the constitution. If you are an honest man in an honest business you will be fully protected under that constitution. While no man may expect a grant of any special privilege in that document, still inevitably that man and that community which does most for the success of Democracy naturally may subsequently expect the most favors consistently to be granted by Democratic voters. Keep this vividly in mind.

Democrats Organize.

The Democrat Boys of the Blackburn Gin neighborhood near the Dela post office, met Thursday night and organized a Democratic club consisting of fifty-two members. The following were elected as officers: Joe Thompson, pres. Jno. Pardue, vice pres. and Walter Hawkins, sec.

The new club was addressed by Duke Stone and Davis of Ada.

The meeting was enthusiastic from start to finish. Everybody is a Democrat out there they say.

16th District's Democratic Organization

The big Democratic rally of August 13th is the beginning of a systematic, vigorous campaign for party success in the 16th District. The following representative citizens compose the party's district executive committee which will direct the fight to make this the banner Democratic county of Oklahoma:

J. T. Conn, Chairman; J. W. Dean, Secretary; J. M. Bruner, Ed Sullivan, Ada, I. T.; L. O. Williams, Bebee, I. T.; John Price, Conway, I. T.; R. H. Austelle, Center, I. T.; W. S. King, Connersville, I. T.; J. R. Chandler, Francis, I. T.; Price Statler, Jesse, I. T. J. E. Bobo, Daniel Harrison, Stonewall, I. T.; Charles Long, Midland, I. T.; Joe Roberts, Maxwell, I. T.; C. J. Moore, Roff, I. T.

The following general committee on arrangements was appointed for the rally enterprise: Dr. Ligon, Ada; Nick Heard, Stonewall; T. L. Primm, Francis; Henry Lewter and John Price, Conway; R. L. Carroll, Fitzhugh; Leon Kahn, Roff; L. O. Williams, Bebee; E. A. Hardy, Hickory; John Davis, Hart.

The local committee on arrangements and program consists of these Democrats of Ada: Robt. Wimbish, Chairman; B. C. King, Joel Terrell, J. P. Crawford, Otis B. Weaver.

Big Chicken House For Ada.

There is a proverb to the effect that blessings come in showers. The cement plant may bring on a shower.

At any rate Ada is likely to get right soon another enterprise worth noticing. Its a chicken house.—Now, you needn't snigger.—This is a produce depot of some dignity. A representative of Henry Broeder & Sons, commission merchants of St. Louis, has been looking over the territory the past week in search of a suitable location for a branch house. It is a compliment to Ada that he has reported to this house that Ada is his preference. Poultry, butter, eggs and hides will be bought for many miles around, both hauled and shipped hither, carefully classified here and shipped to various markets. Poultry will be dressed here; iced and shipped in large bulk. For one thing the industry of chicken picking will afford employment for some of our ragged street gamins. Really it should prove a boon to our farmers, making a good market for their produce.

Ada will welcome the enterprise.

Ada Young Men.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 15, the Christian young men of the city will meet at the Presbyterian church for purpose of organizing "the A. Y. M. B. S. You are all invited to be there.

ABOUT PROHIBITION.

Will Be Allowed to Bring in Liquor But Not to Advertise It.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 14.—Owing to the peculiar wording of the prohibition clause in the statehood bill there has been considerable discussion all over the territory of the five civilized tribes as to whether whiskey may be shipped in from other states and not from that part of the state now known as Oklahoma, and whether it would be unlawful for Indian Territory newspapers to advertise liquors for wholesale houses in the states.

The New State Tribune asked the opinion of Warwick Hough, of St. Louis, attorney for the National Whiskey trust, on these questions. Mr. Hough states that liquor can be shipped in from other states after statehood, but it cannot be brought into the inhabited portion of the new state from other portions; that it will be unlawful after statehood for newspapers in the inhabited territory to advertise for liquor houses outside said territory. This advertising clause does not apply, however, until statehood is effective.

Road Notes.

Nearly every community in caucus, when they handed in the name of their overseer, gave notice that work would begin on roads not later than next Monday.

Five good farmers, of which Robert Young is one, on the Conway road, inform the News that they pledge themselves to build 2 miles of the best road in the district, and further they dare any other five farmers to do as much.

No committee appointed on road from mouth of Sandy to Huddleston crossing. Commercial club take notice.

It is a peculiar task, this road business, but the Lord helps those who help themselves, and the farmers and business men are going to help with all their might.

License.

The following have been issued license to wed by Deputy clerk Constant. Luther W. Chandler, Dibble, I. T. and Agatha Clary, York. B. H. Cantrell, Roff and Mrs. Lidie Givens, Francis. Jas. Eaton, Ada and Vandy Sparks, Maxwell; Jas. Beatty and Janie Huges, Bebee; G. G. Gibbs, Ahlosa and Ada Burrow, Ada; Walter Goynne, Willie Scott; Sidney Reeve and Birdie Mahan, Center; D. O. Columbus Cheatam, a negro wanted in Sulphur Springs, Tex., on the charge of assault to kill, was arrested below the compass Monday by Mr. Ed Brents. The Texas authorities arrived this afternoon to take charge of him.

Second Saturday a Good One.

Last Saturday was the second Saturday in the month, Ada's Sales Day, recently so established by tacit understanding. The success of the first Sales Day is gratifying. Judge Doss says considerable property was sold and exchanged; that his firm alone disposed of nearly $1,000 worth of chattels. A man having seen the announcement in the News brought a mule some 35 miles and sold for a good price. Undoubtedly the custom of observing Sales Day will grow and be of great benefit to traders, farmers and merchants. Merchants can arrange special sales for the occasion and anybody with stuff to sell or trade can be sure of a good market on one foreknown day in each month.

Goyne-Scott.

At the home of the bride's parents, on West Seventh street, Miss Willie Scott was married to W. M. Goyne Sunday at 11:45 a. m., Bro. Rippey officiating.

The bride is the eldest daughter of our fellow townsman, T. A. Scott, and is a charming young woman. The groom is clever, old Walter Goyne, a staunch, sober and industrious young citizen of Ada. There were about forty guests present at the ceremony, all of whom partook of a bounteous wedding dinner that had been prepared by Mrs. Scott. The News reporter got in too late for the ceremony, but in due time to eat chicken pie and cake. The young couple will reside with Will James on West Tenth street temporarily.

The News extends congratulations, especially to Walter.

Progress of the Water Project.

This—Tuesday—afternoon the city council is in session deliberating upon a satisfactory contract with the cement people. While the latter hope to be operating their plant within eight months and expect to get the bulk of their water from a well of their own, conserving the supply by means of a cooling process, still they want a guaranty from the city to furnish water in times of emergency, etc.

Later: The council unanimously voted to call an election at the earliest legal date for the people to vote on the issuance of bonds for a new reservoir; also they closed a contract to furnish water to the cement plant within eight months.

Mrs. Hill Dead.

Mrs. A. P. Hill, sister of Miss Frances Moore who was formerly in the employ of the News, died Monday night at S. McAlester after a few days of illness. Mrs. Hill was an occasional visitor at Ada. She was a beautiful young woman and in her untimely passing the family have the tender sympathies of Ada friends.

MIGRATION OF WILD GEESSE

How the Old Leader of a Flock Gathers It and Starts on Its Journey.

At the end of March or during the first week in April all the gray geese in the Outer Hebrides collect in one place before taking their departure for their nesting haunts within the Arctic circle.

To estimate their numbers is impossible, and to behold this vast concourse of geese as one of the sights of a lifetime. The vast host of birds stands packed together in a huge phalanx till the king of the graylegs starts the flight. As the old leader ascends a hundred thousand voices salute him, but none stir till from overhead he gives the call for his subjects to follow him.

Some fifty birds rise in the air and follow him, and as they go gradually assume the wedge-like formation, with three single birds in a string at the apex of the triangle, and in a few minutes are out of sight. When they have been fairly started the king returns, and after a few minutes rest he rises into the air again, and the same process is gone through before he leads off another batch.

Again and again he returns until all are gone but 300 old veterans, which rise to meet him in the air as he flies back to them. Then, with their sovereign at their head, these also wing their way toward the pole not to return until the following October.

MEASURING DEPTH OF AIR

Atmospheric Envelope of Earth Determined by Interesting Scientific Observation.

One hundred and 31 miles is the height of the atmosphere as measured by Prof. T. J. J. S. S., who determines the thickness of the air envelope by noting the difference between the time of sunset and the complete disappearance of blue from the sky. The moment at which the blue changes into black can be observed quite easily with approximate certainty by the naked eye when the air is clear; and by trigonometry may be ascertained the distance below the horizon of the sun at the moment of change. By this means may be calculated the height of the smallest illuminated particles of oxygen and nitrogen which give to the sky its blueness of tint by the reflection of the smallest wave lengths of the sun's light. The instant of change from blue to black is possibly a little difficult of exact observation, but the method is not more doubtful than that based in the observation of shooting stars. The shooting star method gives a result not greatly differing from the vanishing blue method. The former gives the height of the atmosphere as 109 miles.

Swiftest of Torpedoes.

The new torpedo of the United States navy is one of the most powerful sea weapons in existence. It will travel more than two and a quarter miles, or twice the range of the Whitehead torpedo, which it supersedes. The new missile is turbine driven. The government will purchase and construct 400 of these torpedoes at a cost of several millions.

"Yes, mum," replied Frayed Franklyn.

"What was your position?" "I wuz asleep in a barn at de time, mum." —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Democrats Were Happy at Rally--- Distinguished Men Were Present

By 8.30 a. m. Monday the Democrats began to roll in from the woods, plains and valleys. The morning trains brought them from every neighboring town. They were given that glad Democratic hand-shake which so notably characterizes those who believe like Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan.

The forenoon was devoted to greetings and lovemaking. At 12 o'clock an abundant barbecue was spread at the rear of the tabernacle, and it was good to see the good old boys, those who are for Democracy and honest government, partake of the roast cow and tell of how few Republicans in their neighborhood or how long they have been a Democrat, or even how completely they would wipe up the earth with the Republicans in the coming battles of ballots.

A 2 o'clock the Ada band announced the opening proper, of the first great Democratic rally of this district by playing "Dixie." A thousand cheers greeted the sacred southern air. Mayor Wood was master of ceremonies. He said at the out set that "this tabernacle had been the scene of one of the greatest religious revivals the town has ever seen. And that now it was about to be the scene of the beginning of one of the greatest political revivals the country has ever seen."

On account of having to leave early, Col. Roy Hoffman addressed the assemblage first. His remarks were well chosen and he opened the eyes of many to the importance of gathering in the harness to the end of landing the state for Democracy.

Judge Furman followed with an address of welcome. He and his utterances were greeted with prolonged applause and made the Democrats present think "Why on wonder I am what I am" and those who were not of this faith think "Why in the thunder am I not a Democrat, anyway."

C. J. Moore of Roff, responded to the address of welcome in an able and fiery speech. Following were able and appropriate remarks from Tom McKeown, of Ada; Judge Rathff, of Keown, of Ada; Jap Copeland, of Center, and Ed. Latimer, of Hickory. This completed the afternoon program.

The announcement that Hon. W. A. Durant and Hon. T. P. Gore would speak in the evening drew a large audience. The tabernacle, which has a seating capacity of 2500, was not only packed, but hundreds were on the outside. Mr. Durant's speech was a winner. He spoke as one with authority. He is not only one of the leading and brainiest Indians in the Territory, but he ranks with many of our strongest statesmen in the new state. He is a student of Indian affairs and spoke with authority of the injustice the people have suffered at the hands of Republican misrule and thievery. He held the Republican party up as one of broken promises and misrepresentations.

He skinned Hitchcock and Geo. Wright going and coming, the hair flew. We would that every Indian, yes every white man in the new state could have heard this speech.

T. P. Gore followed. He proved to his hearers that he is a student of political economy and economics. That he is a champion of the people in affairs of government. He reviewed those principles that he thought should be inserted in the new state constitution. He renewed the hit that he always makes with the people here. Hon. Charles Carter, of Ardmore, followed Mr. Gore with a few timely remarks.

Ada should feel honored because of her many distinguished guests. Dr. Fite, candidate for governor, was here from Muskogee. Hon. C. E. McFerrer, of Caddo, and Hon. D. H. Linebaugh, of Atoka, both candidates for congress, were here also, and lent dignity to the occasion with their presence.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

HOW THEY DO BUSINESS AT DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS

The headquarters of the Democratic Campaign committee for the new state are located on the most prominent corner of the City of Oklahoma City, and consist of parlors A, B and C, with a chairman's room, on the second floor of the magnificent Hotel Lee. They are opened, and the business of organization began about the 24th of July. At this time there is a force of ten men busily engaged in building up the organization over the entire state. The rooms are tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and present a very beautiful appearance. The work has been thoroughly systematized into departments, consisting of specific duties for the chairman, secretary, speakers bureau and press bureau.

Hon. Jesse J. Dunn of Alva is chairman of the campaign committee and has general supervision of the entire campaign. Of his superior qualifications for this responsible position one may judge from the personal sketch of Mr. Dunn to be found in another column of the News.

The organization which has been outlined is thorough and complete in every detail, and there is no doubt but that it will result in mustering every Democrat to the polls in November.

On the secretary, Hon. Charles D. Carter, ably assisted by Hon. Joseph E. Johnston, of Alva, devolves the duty of seeing to it that this organization is completed in line with the plan adopted. A sketch of Mr. Carter is also published in another column. Mr. Johnston is peculiarly adapted for the work of his station, and is indefatigable in looking after the details of his office. Between these two gentlemen there can be no doubt that the work will be well and ably handled.

The speakers' bureau is presided over by Hon. W. D. Cardwell, of Ada. Mr. Cardwell is constantly at headquarters and devoting his entire time and attention to the work. His complete knowledge of the new state and his thorough acquaintanceship with the public men render him peculiarly adapted for the duties of his position. To him has been assigned the very important work of selecting, routing, advertising and billing all public speakers, arranging for all public meetings, and seeing that they are successful.

The duties of the press bureau have been placed in the hands of Hon. Paul Nesbitt of Oklahoma City. Mr. Nesbitt is well and favorably known among the press boys and has taken up the duties of his position with vigor and ability. He will give the matter his entire time and the papers of the state may be assured of able assistance throughout the campaign. On him devolves the duty of preparing and disseminating all political news and editorial matter from headquarters. In addition to this, his department will distribute all literature to the clubs and voters in the new state.

Supplementing these earnest workers for the cause of Democracy is a corps of stenographers, clerks and assistants, whose work is in charge of Mr. H. C. Davidson, of Oklahoma City, an urbane and talented young gentleman that all visitors at headquarters are pleased to meet.

If there is anything in organization, and it is universally conceded that there is, there is no doubt about the ultimate outcome of the present conflict. The constitutional convention will be Democratic, and the constitution will be a broad, Democratic document, so framed that unto every resident of the new state will be yielded equal and exact justice and special privileges will be conferred upon none and equal rights granted to all.

against himself and his methods. "I don't care for this," he said, "but my heart does pain me, and my life is burdened because you would not accept my loving, saving, bleeding Christ." The man's great soul literally wept for those who had rejected the spirit of God.

Personally, the writer believes that Mr. Oliver is a fearless, consecrated ambassador of God. That he is the deepest man intellectually, and the loftiest man spiritually, that ever set foot in an Ada pulpit. He fought the battle through against odds. Some of the most influential citizens of the town stood out against him but he was fearless to the end.

Prof. Martin and his chorus choir made life friends with lovers of song. The sirens would have hushed their mythical songs and joined in the melody had they passed when those two hundred voices were lifted in spiritual song.

Besides those who labored as personal workers and choir members, Miss Mable Warren Mesdames S. J. Martin, L. J. Crowder and S. M. Tabbett deserve special commendation for their faithful and never-tiring energies at the piano.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN MEET AND DO BUSINESS

At the hour of 11 o'clock Monday morning about 200 citizens of Ada and the surrounding country met at the tabernacle in a good roads meeting. After some general discussion of the better plan to hasten some much needed road improvement around Ada, a motion was made that the citizens of the different communities situated in the trade district of Ada meet and organize road clubs, and that an overseer from each community be selected to co-operate with the commercial club, to the end that the present deplorable condition of the roads might be improved at the earliest possible moment.

There was considerable discussion, prominent country citizens and members of the commercial club participating. When it was concluded there appeared to be a better understanding and more appreciation of each other. The business men were impressed with the great earnestness of the farmer and his desire to do his part in every respect. The farmers found out sure enough that the commercial club each year for the past several years had expended considerable money and had done its very conscientious best. The great trouble has been and is, there has been so much to do. A motion finally prevailed unanimously, when the former had been withdrawn, that the citizens resident of the respective communities in the country who were present, get together in caucus under the tabernacle and discuss their respective propositions and select road overseers, who would at the earliest possible moment confer with the commercial club. The business men of Ada pledged the farmers early, industrious action in the matter of raising funds and appointing intelligent, active committees to co-operate with the farmers.

The following named men were elected road overseers in their respective neighborhoods:

Bob Eaton, from Ada to Fitzhugh. Overseer will let it be known when work begins.

Chas. Floyd, from Ada to Little Sandy beyond Hird. To begin work Monday morning.

T. N. Herrin, from Ahloso to Rock Crossing.

J. L. Buck from Rock Crossing to crossroads just south of brick yard.

J. D. Pryor, beginning at corner of Barringer's pasture, 3 miles southeast of Ada to section line 'phone is on.

J. O. Wanson and others of the Hol-laway schoolhouse will meet and elect overseer. Mr. Wanson will notify the people.

Clement Palmer and E. C. Sullivan were appointed temporary overseers in their respective neighborhoods and are authorized to call their respective communities together for the purpose of better organization.

J. A. Marlin, from east end of lane at Trants to government schoolhouse.

A. N. Davis, from Blackburn's gin to one mile west.

J. H. Lovelady, from Buck creek to Blackburn's gin. Begin work Thursday morning.

R. S. Hix, from section house to Ahloso.

J. M. Walker, from J. B. Chapman's east 2 miles.

Earl Stanger, calls meeting at Pick-et's schoolhouse for Wednesday night to discuss road matters.

OLIVER'S GREAT REVIVAL COMES TO A CLOSE

The Oliver meeting is history. It has swept by blowing good to hundreds and salvation to scores.

The revival did not have the good will of scores in this town. We shall not enumerate the objections registered on the street corners during its progress. It would require columns of space. We never saw a revival prosper in the face of so much opposition in all our experience, as has this one. However, in spite of hurtful opposition that was in evidence from the beginning, there have been two hundred professions and many a church member has discovered the difference between churchianity and christianity.

Sunday, the last day of the meeting, was the greatest of the thirty. Great crowds attended the three services and listened to eloquent and masterful discourses on the following subjects: At noon, "The Holy Spirit," at 3:00 p. m., "Temperance," evening, "The Unpardonable Sin." We are unable to review any of these sermons, but we can refrain from asserting that his last effort, "The Unpardonable Sin," was the fitting climax to a meeting of goodly sermons. It was the best. We were impressed with his earnestness, his sincerity. His great voice trembled, his eyes were wet as he told his hearers in his last words that he held malice nor enmity against no man for criticism, abuse or utterances of condemnation

REPUBLICAN TRICKERY.

Throughout the sections of the state conceded to be Democratic the Republican politicians are whispering to the masses: "For delegate to the constitutional convention vote for the man, vote for him, regardless of party affiliation, who will do what you want done. Do not go into the Democratic primaries; thereby you obligate yourself to support the nominee." These smooth henchmen of Republicanism make an especial prey of the smaller towns ambitious for a county seat, encouraging them to ignore party lines entirely and support the man who will plug particularly for the town's interests. Also these smooth ones make for the members of the Farmers' Union and pick similar rot into their ears, urging them to stay out of Democratic primaries and vote for "the man."

Now, do you Democrats suppose they are making the same argument up in Republican communities of the new state? Do you think for a moment, for example, that the Republicans are urging the negroes of Guthrie and Muskogee to ignore party lines and vote for "the man"? Hardly. That's simply their game where they know they are the minority. You may depend upon it, every negro and every other kind of a Republican will be whipped into the party line whether their nominee is a "man," a thing or a beast. The News assumes every genuine Democrat believes the best way to find a good man for any public office is to select one thoroughly imbued with the principles of the Democratic party. If he does not so believe his Democracy is extremely doubtful. So, we warn the people against the smooth, serpentine tongue of these unscrupulous tempters. That's the way they have stayed in power for the past ten years. But they cannot befuddle honest people any longer. The latter are learning whom to trust.

We are going to have a Democratic constitutional convention, which will frame a mighty document granting special privileges to none other than the whole people. If you want to help yourself and your neighbor you'd better scramble into the band wagon. Else you'll get run over.

A "DOLLAR PUT IT BACK FUND."

Mr. Roosevelt has forwarded one dollar for the Republican campaign fund. Republican newspapers are pointing to this as an excellent example. It is an excellent example when the president seeks to encourage his party to depend upon campaign funds provided by the people rather than by the corporations.

But the president may set another good example. Let him call upon Postmaster General Cortelyou, who is also chairman of the Republican National committee, to state just how many hundred thousand dollars of money embezzled from the insurance policy holders found their way into the coffers of the Republican party.

Then when the sum has been determined upon, let Mr. Roosevelt suggest that the Republican party "put it back," and call upon the rank and file of the party to contribute dollar donations to that end.

It might be called "The Dollar Put It Back Fund."

Republican leaders certainly do not expect the people to forget these stolen funds.—Commoner.

BESIDES the material, there are other advantages of an artificial lake for Ada. Think of it as a public park, a pleasure resort, a place for the children to romp and play, their laughter mingling with the chatter of the squirrels and the chorus of the birds, a paradisaic picnic ground for the whole country around, all that the lake would be.

KEEP on talking the dam enterprise, keep the waters troubled.

THE RALLY A SUCCESS.

THE big Democratic rally Monday, from every standpoint, was a brilliant success. Hundreds upon hundreds of people attended from all parts of the country. Out of the occasion they got both pleasure and enlightenment. They were addressed by some of the leading speakers and thinkers of the new state; they learned a great deal about the conditions and issues facing us; learned that there is work for every man to do if we would have a great state builded, and learned something of what that work consisted of.

THE fulminations of Oliver are still reverberating in the community.

THE tabernacle Monday was vibrant with the gospel of Jefferson.

TUESDAY is caloric day in Dallas. There today Texas Democracy in convention is choosing the next Governor.

GOODROADS—of course we're going to have passable highways for our farmers to use in getting to town with their cotton.

"ADA is the Mecca of Democracy. He is mightily strengthened in the faith who makes a pilgrimage thither and worships at the shrine." So says T. P. Gore.

By all means let the county seat contests be held in obedience, keep them out of the big struggle for control of the constitutional convention. The county seats will be selected later by vote of the people. The Democratic party will organize that convention and frame the constitution. If you are an honest man in an honest business you will be fully protected under that constitution. While no man may expect a grant of any special privilege in that document, still inevitably that man and that community which does most for the success of Democracy naturally may subsequently expect the most favors consistently to be granted by Democratic voters. Keep this vividly in mind.

Democrats Organize.

The Democrat Boys of the Blackburn Gin neighborhood near the Dela post office, met Thursday night and organized a Democratic club consisting of fifty-two members. The following were elected as officers: Joe Thompson, pres. Jno. Pardue, vice pres. and Walter Hawkins, sec.

The new club was addressed by Duke Stone and Davis of Ada.

The meeting was enthusiastic from start to finish. Every body is a Democrat out there they say.

16th District's Democratic Organization

The big Democratic rally of August 13th is the beginning of a systematic, vigorous campaign for party success in the 16th District. The following representative citizens compose the party's district executive committee which will direct the fight to make this the banner Democratic county of Oklahoma:

J. T. Conn, Chairman; J. W. Dean, Secretary; J. M. Bruner, Ed Sullivan, Ada, I. T.; L. O. Williams, Bebee, I. T.; John Price, Conway, I. T.; R. H. Austelle, Center, I. T.; W. S. King, Connerville, I. T.; J. R. Chandler, Francis, I. T.; Price Statler, Jesse, I. T.; J. E. Bobo, Daniel Harrison, Stonewall, I. T.; Charles Long, Midland, I. T.; Joe Roberts, Maxwell, I. T.; C. J. Moore, Roff, I. T.

The following general committee on arrangements was appointed for the rally enterprise: Dr. Ligon, Ada; Nick Heard, Stonewall; T. L. Primm, Francis; Henry Lewter and John Price, Conway; R. L. Carroll, Fitzhugh; Leon Kahn, Roff; L. O. Williams, Bebee; E. A. Hardy, Hickory; John Davis, Hart.

The local committee on arrangements and program consists of these Democrats of Ada: Robt. Wimbish, Chairman; B. C. King, Joel Torrell, J. P. Crawford, Otis B. Weaver.

Big Chicken House For Ada.

There is a proverb to the effect that blessings come in showers. The cement plant may bring on a shower.

At any rate Ada is likely to get right soon another enterprise worth noticing. Its a chicken house.—Now, you needn't snigger.—This is a produce depot of some dignity. A representative of Henry Broeder & Sons, commission merchants of St. Louis, has been looking over the territory the past week in search of a suitable location for a branch house. It is a compliment to Ada that he has reported to this house that Ada is his preference. Poultry, butter, eggs and hides will be bought for many miles around, both hauled and shipped hither, carefully classified here and shipped to various markets. Poultry will be dressed here, iced and shipped in large bulk. For one thing the industry of chicken picking will afford employment for some of our ragged street gamins. Really it should prove a boon to our farmers, making a good market for their produce.

Ada will welcome the enterprise.

Ada Young Men.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 15, the Christian young men of the city will meet at the Presbyterian church for purpose of organizing "the A. Y. M. B. S." You are all invited to be there.

ABOUT PROHIBITION.

Will Be Allowed to Bring in Liquor But Not to Advertise It.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 14.—Owing to the peculiar wording of the prohibition clause in the statehood bill there has been considerable discussion all over the territory of the five civilized tribes as to whether whiskey may be shipped in from other states and not from that part of the state now known as Oklahoma, and whether it would be unlawful for Indian Territory newspapers to advertise liquors for wholesale houses in the states.

The New State Tribune asked the opinion of Warwick Hough, of St. Louis, attorney for the National Whiskey trust, on these questions. Mr. Hough states that liquor can be shipped in from other states after statehood, but it cannot be brought into the inhabited portion of the new state from other portions; that it will be unlawful after statehood for newspapers in the inhabited territory to advertise for liquor houses outside said territory. This advertising clause does not apply, however, until statehood is effective.

Road Notes.

Nearly every community in caucus, when they handed in the name of their overseer, gave notice that work would begin on roads not later than next Monday.

Five good farmers, of which Robert Young is one, on the Conway road, inform the News that they pledge themselves to build 2 miles of the best road in the district, and further they dare any other five farmers to do as much.

No committee appointed on road from mouth of Sandy to Huddleston crossing. Commercial club take notice.

It is a peculiar task, this road business, but the Lord helps those who help themselves, and the farmers and business men are going to help with all their might.

License.

The following have been issued license to wed by Deputy clerk Constant. Luther W. Chandler, Dibble, I. T. and Agatha Clary, York. B. H. Cantrell, Roff and Mrs. Liddie Givens, Francis. Jas. Eaton, Ada and Vandy Sparks, Maxwell; Jas. Beatty and Janie Hughes, Bebee; G. G. Gibbs, Ahlosa and Ada Burrow, Ada; Walter Goynne, Willie Scott; Sidney Reeve and Birdie Mahan, Center; D. O. Lindsey and Ada Mae Russell both of Ada. Jas. R. Neely, Stonewall and Nies Morton, Jesse; C. D. Lockwell and Maud Tenor both of Francis; J. W. Scroggins, Francis and Annie Meridith, Sasakwa.

Gov. Bob Taylor.

came in on the 4 o'clock Katy, and, notwithstanding the fact he was compelled to cancel several engagements on account of washouts, he will be right on the dot at Ada.

The Tabernacle is in shape for the large crowd who will hear him tonight and Bob will do his utmost to entertain all who are desirous of being entertained.

Frisco Steps To Drink.

Verily water can no longer remain a negligible quantity in the city of Ada. Even the Frisco, which runs so fast—through the city limits—paused with six locomotives Sunday and drew on us for 30,000 gallons. The company's pipes up the line were in disrepair.

Second Saturday a Good One.

Last Saturday was the second Saturday in the month, Ada's Sales Day, recently so established by tacit understanding. The success of the first Sales Day is gratifying. Judge Doss says considerable property was sold and exchanged, that his firm alone disposed of nearly $1,000 worth of chattels. A man having seen the announcement in the News brought a mule some 35 miles and sold for a good price. Undoubtedly the custom of observing Sales Day will grow and be of great benefit to traders, farmers and merchants. Merchants can arrange special sales for the occasion and anybody with stuff to sell or trade can be sure of a good market on one foreknown day in each month.

The News reporter got in too late for the ceremony, but in due time to eat chicken pie and cake. The young couple will reside with Will James on West Tenth street temporarily.

The News extends congratulations, especially to Walter.

Progress of the Water Project.

This Tuesday afternoon the city council is in session deliberating upon a satisfactory contract with the cement people. While the latter hope to be operating their plant within eight months and expect to get the bulk of their water from a well of their own, conserving the supply by means of a cooling process, still they want a guaranty from the city to furnish water in times of emergency, etc.

Later The council unanimously voted to call an election at the earliest legal date for the people to vote on the issuance of bonds for a new reservoir, also they closed a contract to furnish water to the cement plant within eight months.

MIGRATION OF WILD GEESSE

How the Old Leader of a Flock Gathers It and Starts on Its Journey.

At the end of March or during the first week in April all the gray geese in the Outer Hebrides collect in one place before taking their departure for their nesting haunts within the Arctic circle.

To estimate their numbers is impossible, and to behold this vast concourse of geese as one of the sights of a lifetime. The vast host of birds stands packed together in a huge phalanx (the king of the graylegs starts the flight. As the old leader ascends a hundred thousand voices salute him, but none stir till from overseas he gives the call for his subjects to follow him.

Some fifty birds rise in the air and follow him, and as they go gradually assume the wedge-like formation, with three single birds in a string at the apex of the triangle, and in a few minutes are out of sight. When they have been fairly started the king returns and after a few minutes rest he rises into the air again and the same process is gone through before he leads off another batch.

Again and again he returns until all are gone but 300 old veterans, which rise to meet him in the air as he flies back to them. Then, with their sovereign at their head, these also wing their way toward the pole not to return until the following October.

MEASURING DEPTH OF AIR

Atmospheric Envelope of Earth Determined by Interesting Scientific Observation.

One hundred and 31 miles is the height of the atmosphere as measured by Prof. T. J. J. S. who determines the thickness of the air envelope by noting the difference between the time of sunset and the complete disappearance of blue from the sky. The moment at which the blue changes into black can be observed quite easily with approximate certainty by the naked eye when the air is clear, and by trigonometry may be ascertained the distance below the horizon of the sun at the moment of change. By this means may be calculated the height of the smallest illuminated particles of oxygen and nitrogen which give to the sky its blueness of tint by the reflection of the smallest wave lengths of the sun's light. The instant of change from blue to black is possibly a little difficult of exact observation, but the method is not more doubtful than that based in the observation of shooting stars. The shooting star method gives a result not greatly differing from the vanishing blue method. The former gives the height of the atmosphere a 109 miles.

Swiftest of Torpedoes

The new torpedo of the United States navy is one of the most powerful sea weapons in existence. It will travel more than two and a quarter miles, or twice the range of the Whitehead torpedo, which it supersedes. The new missile is turbine driven. The government will purchase and construct 400 of these torpedoes at a cost of several millions.

Strong Hint in the Figures.

"Gladys," called her pa, "what time is it?" "It's eleven, father." "It's 12 up here. Eleven and 12 are 23." And then the young man departed. —Houston Chronicle.

Galveston's Sea Wall makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Texas, needs no sea wall for safety. NUMBER 123

Democrats Were Happy at Rally--- Distinguished Men Were Present

By 8.30 a. m. Monday the Democrats began to roll in from the woods, plains and valleys. The morning trains brought them from every neighboring town. They were given that glad Democratic hand-shake which so notably characterizes those who believe like Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan.

The forenoon was devoted to greetings and lovemaking. At 12 o'clock an abundant barbecue was spread at the rear of the tabernacle, and it was good to see the good old boys, those who are for Democracy and honest government, partake of the roast cow and tell of how few Republicans in their neighborhood or how long they have been a Democrat, or even how completely they would wipe up the earth with the Republicans in the coming battles of ballots.

A 2 o'clock the Ada band announced the opening proper, of the first great Democratic rally of this district by playing "Dixie." A thousand cheers greeted the sacred southern air.

Mayor Wood was master of ceremonies. He said at the out set that "this tabernacle had been the scene of one of the greatest religious revivals the town has ever seen. And that now it was about to be the scene of the beginning of one of the greatest political revivals the country has ever seen."

On account of having to leave early, Col. Roy Hoffman addressed the assembly first. His remarks were well chosen and he opened the eyes of many to the importance of gathering in the harness to the end of landing the state for Democracy.

Judge Furman followed with an address of welcome. He and his utterances were greeted with prolonged applause and made the Democrats present think "Why on wonder I am what I am" and those who were not of this faith think "Why in the thunder am I not a Democrat, anyway?"

C. J. Moore of Roff, responded to the address of welcome in an able and fiery speech. Following were able and appropriate remarks from Tom McKeown, of Ada; Judge Rathiff, of Stonewall, Jap Copeland, of Center, and Ed. Latimer, of Hickory. This completed the afternoon program.

The announcement that Hon. W. A. Durant and Hon. T. P. Gore would speak in the evening drew a large audience. The tabernacle, which has a seating capacity of 2500, was not only packed, but hundreds were on the outside. Mr. Durant's speech was a winner. He spoke as one with authority. He is not only one of the leading and brainiest Indians in the Territory, but he ranks with many of our strongest statesmen in the new state. He is a student of Indian affairs and spoke with authority of the injustice the people have suffered at the hands of Republican misrule and thievery. He held the Republican party up as one of broken promises and misrepresentations

He skinned Hitchcock and Geo. Wright going and coming, the hair flew. We would that every Indian, yea every white man in the new state could have heard this speech.

T. P. Gore followed. He proved to his hearers that he is a student of political economy and economics. That he is a champion of the people in affairs of government. He reviewed those principles that he thought should be inserted in the new state constitution. He renewed the hit that he always makes with the people here.

Hon. Charles Carter, of Ardmore, followed Mr. Gore with a few timely remarks.

Ada should feel honored because of her many distinguished guests. Dr. Fite, candidate for governor, was here from Muskogee. Hon. C. E. McFerren, of Caddo, and Hon. D. H. Linebaugh, of Atoka, both candidates for congress, were here also, and lent dignity to the occasion with their presence.

HOW THEY DO BUSINESS AT DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS

The headquarters of the Democratic Campaign committee for the new state are located on the most prominent corner of the City of Oklahoma City, and consist of parlors A, B and C, with a chairman's room, on the second floor of the magnificent Hotel Lee. They are opened, and the business of organization began about the 24th of July. At this time there is a force of ten men busily engaged in building up the organization over the entire state. The rooms are tastefully decorated with flags and bunting and present a very beautiful appearance. The work has been thoroughly systematized into departments, consisting of specific duties for the chairman, secretary, speakers bureau and press bureau.

Hon. Jesse J. Dunn of Alva is chairman of the campaign committee, and has general supervision of the entire campaign. Of his superior qualifications for this responsible position one may judge from the personal sketch of Mr. Dunn to be found in another column of the News.

The organization which has been outlined is thorough and complete in every detail, and there is no doubt but that it will result in mustering every Democrat to the polls in November.

On the secretary, Hon. Charles D. Carter, ably assisted by Hon. Joseph E. Johnston, of Alva, devolves the duty of seeing to it that this organization is completed in line with the plan adopted. A sketch of Mr. Carter is also published in another column. Mr. Johnston is peculiarly adapted for the work of his station, and is indefatigable in looking after the details of his office. Between these two gentlemen there can be no doubt that the work will be well and ably handled.

The speakers' bureau is presided over by Hon. W. D. Cardwell, of Ada, I. T. Mr. Cardwell is constantly at headquarters and devoting his entire time and attention to the work. His complete knowledge of the new state and his thorough acquaintanceship with the public men render him peculiarly adapted for the duties of his position. To him has been assigned the very important work of selecting, routing, advertising and billing all public speakers, arranging for all public meetings, and seeing that they are successful.

The duties of the press bureau have been placed in the hands of Hon. Paul Nesbitt of Oklahoma City. Mr. Nesbitt is well and favorably known among the press boys and has taken up the duties of his position with vigor and ability. He will give the matter his entire time and the papers of the state may be assured of able assistance throughout the campaign. On him devolves the duty of preparing and disseminating all political news and editorial matter from headquarters. In addition to this, his department will distribute all literature to the clubs and voters in the new state.

Supplementing these earnest workers for the cause of Democracy is a corps of stenographers, clerks and assistants, whose work is in charge of Mr. H. C. Davidson, of Oklahoma City, an urbane and talented young gentleman that all visitors at headquarters are pleased to meet.

If there is anything in organization, and it is universally conceded that there is, there is no doubt about the ultimate outcome of the present conflict. The constitutional convention will be Democratic, and the constitution will be a broad, Democratic document, so framed that unto every resident of the new state will be yielded equal and exact justice and special privileges will be conferred upon none and equal rights granted to all.

against himself and his methods. "I don't care for this," he said, "but my heart does pain me, and my life is burdened because you would not accept my loving, saving, bleeding Christ." The man's great soul literally wept for those who had rejected the spirit of God.

Personally, the writer believes that Mr. Oliver is a fearless, consecrated ambassador of God. That he is the deepest man intellectually, and the loftiest man spiritually, that ever set foot in an Ada pulpit. He fought the battle through against odds. Some of the most influential citizens of the town stood out against him, but he was fearless to the end.

Prof. Martin and his chorus choir made life friends with lovers of song. The sirens would have hushed their mythical songs and joined in the melody had they passed when those two hundred voices were lifted in spiritual song.

Besides those who labored as personal workers and choir members, Mrs. Mahie Warren Mesdames S. J. Martin, L. J. Crowder and S. M. Torbett deserve special commendation for their faithful and never-tiring energies at the pianos.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN MEET AND DO BUSINESS

At the hour of 11 o'clock Monday morning about 200 citizens of Ada and the surrounding country met at the tabernacle in a good roads meeting. After some general discussion of the better plan to hasten some much needed road improvement around Ada, a motion was made that the citizens of the different communities situated in the trade district of Ada meet and organize road clubs, and that an overseer from each community be selected to co-operate with the commercial club, to the end that the present deplorable condition of the roads might be improved at the earliest possible moment.

There was considerable discussion, prominent country citizens and members of the commercial club participating. When it was concluded there appeared to be a better understanding and more appreciation of each other. The business men were impressed with the great earnestness of the farmer and his desire to do his part in every respect. The farmers found out sure enough that the commercial club each year for the past several years had expended considerable money and had done its very conscientious best. The great trouble has been and is, there has been so much to do. A motion finally prevailed unanimously, when the former had been withdrawn, that the citizens resident of the respective communities in the country who were present, get together in caucus under the tabernacle and discuss their respective propositions and select road overseers, who would at the earliest possible moment confer with the commercial club. The business men of Ada pledged the farmers early, industrious action in the matter of raising funds and appointing intelligent, active committees to co-operate with the farmers.

The following named men were elected road overseers in their respective neighborhoods:

Bob Eaton, from Ada to Fitzhugh. Overseer will let it be known when work begins.

Chas. Floyd, from Ada to Little Sandy beyond Hrd. To begin work Monday morning.

T. N. Herrin, from Ahloso to Rock Crossing.

J. L. Buck from Rock Crossing to crossroads just south of brick yard.

J. D. Pryor, beginning at corner of Barringer's pasture, 3 miles southeast of Ada to section line 'phone is on.

J. O. Wanson and others of the Holaway schoolhouse will meet and elect overseer. Mr. Wanson will notify the people.

Clement Palmer and E. C. Sullivan were appointed temporary overseers in their respective neighborhoods and are authorized to call their respective communities together for the purpose of better organization.

J. A. Marlin, from east end of lane at Trants to government schoolhouse.

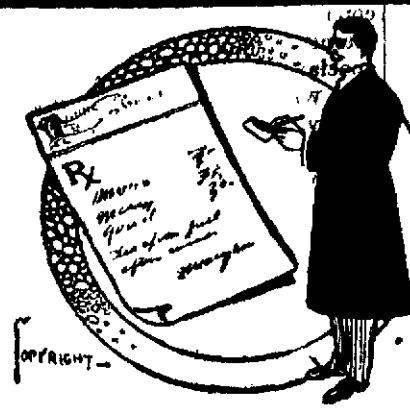

A. N. Davis, from Blackburn's gin to one mile west.

J. H. Lovelady, from Buck creek to Blackburn's gin. Begin work Thursday morning.

R. S. Hix, from section house to Ahloso.

J. M. Walker, from J. B. Chapman's east 2 miles.

Earl Stanger, calls meeting at Picket's schoolhouse for Wednesday night to discuss road matters.

A GOOD DOCTOR

is a broad minded man, and one who has the interest of his patient at heart and does all in his power to ease his patient. The best doctors' skill and ability is of little consequence if his prescriptions are filled by incompetent druggists and with impure drugs. Our prescription department is the largest and most complete of any in the city and it is composed of the purest drugs and chemicals and compounded by experienced druggists. Consequently the best results are obtained. We can fill any prescription written by any physician in the city. You do not need to take them elsewhere because they are written on other druggists' stationery.

OVERDRAFTS

It is becoming well known by business men that overdrafts, whether large or small, are not approved by the comptroller of the currency. The large central banks allow overdrafts only in a very small way, and this, it matters not how small, is not approved by the powers that be. This unbusinesslike habit of overdrafts grew out of advancing on moving products, such as cotton, grain and fat stock on the move. The overdraft system is wrong and the man whose account is always overdrawn is the man who spends more money than he makes and will finally have no bank account.

OLIVER'S GREAT REVIVAL COMES TO A CLOSE

The Oliver meeting is history. It has swept by blowing good to hundreds and salvation to scores.

The revival did not have the good will of scores in this town. We shall not enumerate the objections registered on the street corners during its progress. It would require columns of space. We never saw a revival prosper in the face of so much opposition in all our experience, as has this one. However, in spite of hurtful opposition that was in evidence from the beginning, there have been two hundred professions and many a church member has discovered the difference between churchianity and christianity.

Sunday, the last day of the meeting, was the greatest of the thirty. Great crowds attended the three services and listened to eloquent and masterful discourses on the following subjects: At noon, "The Holy Spirit," at 3:00 p. m., "Temperance," evening, "The Unpardonable Sin." We are unable to review any of these sermons, but we cannot refrain from asserting that his last effort, "The Unpardonable Sin," was the fitting climax to a meeting of goodly sermons. It was the best. We were impressed with his earnestness, his sincerity. His great voice trembled, his eyes were wet as he told his hearers in his last words that he held malice nor enmity against no man for criticism, abuse or utterances of condemnation

REPUBLICAN TRICKERY.

Throughout the sections of the new state conceded to be Democratic the Republican politicians are whispering to the masses: "For delegate to the constitutional convention vote for the man, vote for him, regardless of party affiliation, who will do what you want done. Do not go into the Democratic primaries; thereby you obligate yourself to support the nominee." These smooth henchmen of Republicanism make an especial prey of the smaller towns ambitious for a county seat, encouraging them to ignore party lines entirely and support the man who will play particularly for the town's interests. Also these smooth ones make for the members of the Farmers' Union and pick similar rot into their ears, urging them to stay out of Democratic primaries and vote for "the man."

Now, do you Democrats suppose they are making the same argument up in Republican communities of the new state? Do you think for a moment, for example, that the Republicans are urging the negroes of Guthrie and Muskogee to ignore party lines and vote for "the man?" Hardly. That's simply their game where they know they are the minority. You may depend upon it, every negro and every other kind of a Republican will be whipped into the party line whether their nominee is a "man," a thing or a beast. The News assumes every genuine Democrat believes the best way to find a good man for any public office is to select one thoroughly imbued with the principles of the Democratic party. If he does not so believe his Democracy is extremely doubtful. So, we warn the people against the smooth, serpentine tongue of these unscrupulous tempters. That's the way they have stayed in power for the past ten years. But they cannot befuddle honest people any longer. The latter are learning whom to trust.

We are going to have a Democratic constitutional convention, which will frame a mighty document granting special privileges to none other than the whole people. If you want to help yourself and your neighbor you'd better scramble into the band wagon. Else you'll get run over.

A "DOLLAR PUT IT BACK FUND."

Mr. Roosevelt has forwarded one dollar for the Republican campaign fund. Republican newspapers are pointing to this as an excellent example. It is an excellent example when the president seeks to encourage his party to depend upon campaign funds provided by the people rather than by the corporations.

But the president may set another good example. Let him call upon Postmaster General Cortelyou, who is also chairman of the Republican National committee, to state just how many hundred thousand dollars of money embezzled from the insurance policy holders found their way into the coffers of the Republican party.

Then when the sum has been determined upon, let Mr. Roosevelt suggest that the Republican party "put it back" and call upon the rank and file of the party to contribute dollar donations to that end.

It might be called "The Dollar Put It Back Fund."

Republican leaders certainly do not expect the people to forget these stolen funds.—Commoner.

BESIDES the material, there are other advantages of an artificial lake for Ada. Think of it as a public park, a pleasure resort, a place for the children to romp and play, their laughter mingling with the chatter of the squirrels and the chorus of the birds, a paradisaic picnic ground for the whole country around, all that the lake would be.

KEEP on talking the dam enterprise, keep the waters troubled.

THE RALLY A SUCCESS.

THE big Democratic rally Monday, from every standpoint, was a brilliant success. Hundreds upon hundreds of people attended from all parts of the country. Out of the occasion they got both pleasure and enlightenment. They were addressed by some of the leading speakers and thinkers of the new state; they learned a great deal about the conditions and issues facing us; learned that there is work for every man to do if we would have a great state builded, and learned something of what that work consisted of.

THE fulminations of Oliver are still reverberating in the community.

THE tabernacle Monday was vibrant with the gospel of Jefferson.

TUESDAY is a caloric day in Dallas. There today Texas Democracy in convention is choosing the next Governor.

GOODROADS—of course we're going to have passable highways for our farmers to use in getting to town with their cotton.

"ADA is the Mecca of Democracy. He is mightily strengthened in the faith who makes a pilgrimage thither and worships at the shrine." So says T. P. Gore.

By all means let the county seat contests be held in obedience, keep them out of the big struggle for control of the constitutional convention. The county seats will be selected later by vote of the people. The Democratic party will organize that convention and frame the constitution. If you are an honest man in an honest business you will be fully protected under that constitution. While no man may expect a grant of any special privilege in that document, still inevitably that man and that community which does most for the success of Democracy naturally may subsequently expect the most favors consistently to be granted by Democratic voters. Keep this vividly in mind.

Democrats Organize.

The Democrat Boys of the Blackburn Gin neighborhood near the Dela post office, met Thursday night and organized a Democratic club consisting of fifty-two members. The following were elected as officers: Joe Thompson, pres. Jno. Pardue, vice pres. and Walter Hawkins, sec.

The new club was addressed by Duke Stone and Davis of Ada.

The meeting was enthusiastic from start to finish. Everybody is a Democrat out there they say.

16th District's Democratic Organization

The big Democratic rally of August 18th is the beginning of a systematic, vigorous campaign for party success in the 16th District. The following representative citizens compose the party's district executive committee which will direct the fight to make this the banner Democratic county of Oklahoma:

J. T. Conn, Chairman; J. W. Dean, Secretary; J. M. Bruner, Ed Sullivan, Ada, I. T.; L. O. Williams, Bebee, I. T.; John Price, Conway, I. T.; R. H. Austelle, Center, I. T.; W. S. King, Connerville, I. T.; J. R. Chandler, Francis, I. T.; Price Statler, Jesse, I. T.; J. E. Bobo, Daniel Harrison, Stonewall, I. T.; Charles Long, Midland, I. T.; Joe Roberts, Maxwell, I. T.; C. J. Moore, Roff, I. T.

The following general committee on arrangements was appointed for the rally enterprise: Dr. Ligon, Ada; Nick Heard, Stonewall; T. L. Primm, Francis; Henry Lewter and John Price, Conway; R. L. Carroll, Fitzhugh; Leon Kahn, Roff; L. O. Williams, Bebee; E. A. Hardy, Hickory; John Davis, Hart.

The local committee on arrangements and program consists of these Democrats of Ada: Robt. Wimbish, Chairman; B. C. King, Joel Terrell, J. P. Crawford, Otis B. Weaver.

Big Chicken House For Ada.

There is a proverb to the effect that blessings come in showers. The cement plant may bring on a shower.

At any rate Ada is likely to get right soon another enterprise worth noticing. It's a chicken house.—Now, you needn't snigger. This is a produce depot of some dignity. A representative of Henry Broeder & Sons, commission merchants of St. Louis, has been looking over the territory the past week in search of a suitable location for a branch house.

It is a compliment to Ada that he has reported to this house that Ada is his preference. Poultry, butter, eggs and hides will be bought for many miles around, both hauled and shipped hither, carefully classified here and shipped to various markets. Poultry will be dressed here, iced and shipped in large bulk. For one thing the industry of chicken picking will afford employment for some of our ragged street gamins. Really it should prove a boon to our farmers, making a good market for their produce.

Ada will welcome the enterprise.

Ada Young Men.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 15, the Christian young men of the city will meet at the Presbyterian church for purpose of organizing "the A. Y. M. B. S." You are all invited to be there.

ABOUT PROHIBITION.

Will Be Allowed to Bring in Liquor But Not to Advertise It.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 14.—Owing to the peculiar wording of the prohibition clause in the statehood bill there has been considerable discussion all over the territory of the five civilized tribes as to whether whiskey may be shipped in from other states and not from that part of the state now known as Oklahoma, and whether it would be unlawful for Indian Territory newspapers to advertise liquors for wholesale houses in the states.

The New State Tribune asked the opinion of Warwick Hough, of St. Louis, attorney for the National Whiskey trust, on these questions. Mr. Hough states that liquor can be shipped in from other states after statehood, but it cannot be brought into the inhabited portion of the new state from other portions; that it will be unlawful after statehood for newspapers in the inhabited territory to advertise for liquor houses outside said territory. This advertising clause does not apply, however, until statehood is effective.

Road Notes.

Nearly every community in caucus, when they handed in the name of their overseer, gave notice that work would begin on roads not later than next Monday.

Five good farmers, of which Robert Young is one, on the Conway road, inform the News that they pledge themselves to build 2 miles of the best road in the district, and further they dare any other five farmers to do as much.

No committee appointed on road from mouth of Sandy to Huddleston crossing. Commercial club take notice. It is a peculiar task, this road business, but the Lord helps those who help themselves, and the farmers and business men are going to help with all their might.

License.

The following have been issued license to wed by Deputy clerk Constant: Luther W. Chandler, Dibble, I. T. and Agatha Clary, York. B. H. Cantrell, Roff and Mrs. Lidle Givens, Francis. Jas. Eaton, Ada and Vandy Sparks, Maxwell; Jas. Beatty and Janie Hughes, Bebee; G. G. Gibbs, Ahlosa and Ada Burrow, Ada; Walter Coyne, Willie Scott; Sidney Reeve and Birdie Mahan, Center; D. O. Lindsey and Ada Mae Russell both of Ada. Jas. R. Neely, Stonewall and Nies Morton, Jesse, C. D. Lockwell and Maud Tenor both of Francis; J. W. Scroggins, Francis and Annie Meridith, Sasakwa.

The Tabernacle is in shape for the large crowd who will hear him tonight and Bob will do his utmost to entertain all who are desirous of being entertained.

Frisco Steps To Drink.

Verily water can no longer remain a negligible quantity in the city of Ada. Even the Frisco, which runs so fast—through the city limits—paused with six locomotives Sunday and drew on us for 30,000 gallons. The company's pipes up the line were in disrepair.

Second Saturday a Good One.

Last Saturday was the second Saturday in the month. Ada's Sales Day, recently so established by tacit understanding. The success of the first Sales Day is gratifying. Judge Doss says considerable property was sold and exchanged; that his firm alone disposed of nearly $1,000 worth of chattels. A man having seen the announcement in the News brought a mule some 35 miles and sold for a good price. Undoubtedly the custom of observing Sales Day will grow and be of great benefit to traders, farmers and merchants. Merchants can arrange special sales for the occasion and anybody with stuff to sell or trade can be sure of a good market on one foreknown day in each month.

There were about forty guests present at the ceremony, all of whom partook of a bounteous wedding dinner that had been prepared by Mrs. Scott. The News reporter got in too late for the ceremony, but in due time to eat chicken pie and cake. The young couple will reside with Will James on West Tenth street temporarily.

The News extends congratulations, especially to Walter.

Progress of the Water Project.

This Tuesday-afternoon the city council is in session deliberating upon a satisfactory contract with the cement people. While the latter hope to be operating their plant within eight months and expect to get the bulk of their water from a well of their own, conserving the supply by means of a cooling process,—still they want a guaranty from the city to furnish water in times of emergency, etc.

Later: The council unanimously voted to call an election at the earliest legal date for the people to vote on the issuance of bonds for a new reservoir; also they closed a contract to furnish water to the cement plant within eight months.

Mrs. A. P. Hill, sister of Miss Frances Moore who was formerly in the employ of the News, died Monday night at S. McAlester after a few days of illness. Mrs. Hill was an occasional visitor at Ada. ### MIGRATION OF WILD GEESSE

How the Old Leader of a Flock Gathers It and Starts on Its Journey.

At the end of March or during the first week in April all the gray geese in the Outer Hebrides collect in one place before taking their departure for their nesting haunts within the Arctic circle.

To estimate their numbers is impossible, and to behold this vast concourse of geese as one of the sights of a lifetime. The vast host of birds stands packed together in a huge phalanx till the king of the graylegs starts the flight. As the old leader ascends a hundred thousand voices salute him, but none stir till from overhead he gives the call for his subjects to follow him.

Some fifty birds rise in the air and follow him, and as they go gradually assume the wedge-like formation, with three single birds in a string at the apex of the triangle, and in a few minutes are out of sight. When they have been fairly started the king returns, and after a few minutes rest he rises into the air again, and the same process is gone through before he leads off another batch.

Again and again he returns until all are gone but 300 old veterans, which rise to meet him in the air as he flies back to them. Then, with their sovereign at their head, these also wing their way toward the pole not to return until the following October.

MEASURING DEPTH OF AIR

Atmospheric Envelope of Earth Determined by Interesting Scientific Observation.

One hundred and 31 miles is the height of the atmosphere as measured by Prof. T. J. J. S. who determines the thickness of the air envelope by noting the difference between the time of sunset and the complete disappearance of blue from the sky. The moment at which the blue changes into black can be observed quite easily with approximate certainty by the naked eye when the air is clear; and by trigonometry may be ascertained the distance below the horizon of the sun at the moment of change. By this means may be calculated the height of the smallest illuminated particles of oxygen and nitrogen which give to the sky its blueness of tint by the reflection of the smallest wave lengths of the sun's light. The instant of change from blue to black is possibly a little difficult of exact observation, but the method is not more doubtful than that based in the observation of shooting stars. The shooting star method gives a result not greatly differing from the vanishing blue method. The former gives the height of the atmosphere as 109 miles.

Swiftest of Torpedoes.

The new torpedo of the United States navy is one of the most powerful sea weapons in existence. It will travel more than two and a quarter miles, or twice the range of the Whitehead torpedo, which it supersedes. The new missile is turbine driven. The government will purchase and construct 400 of these torpedoes at a cost of several millions.

Strong Hint in the Figures.

"Gladys," called her pa, "what time is it?" "It's eleven, father." "It's 12 up here. Eleven and 12 are 23." And then the young man departed. —Houston Chronicle.

Thrown Out.

"And you say you lost your position by the great earthquake in San Francisco?" inquired the kind lady. "Yes, mum," replied Frayed Franklyn. "What was your position?" "I wuz asleep in a barn at de time, mum." —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Galveston's Sea Wall makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodlee, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Texas, needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's new discovery for consumption the past 5 years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic coughs, la grippe, croup, whooping cough and prevents pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at G. M. Ramsey's and F. Z. Holley's drug stores. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle.
